Celebration of LZACC History

History is like the storybook of a community, weaving together its past, present, and future. It's what shapes who we are and where we come from, giving meaning to our traditions and customs.

The Lake Zurich Area Chamber of Commerce celebrated our long history in the Lake Zurich Area at the Legacy of Appreciation, an Evening of Gratitude and Connection Gala in February where our longest-standing board members were recognized.

STAY | Home

When it comes to home maintenance and improvements, tapping into local sources can be a game-changer. Going local means you're not just hiring a professional; you're investing in your community. Local businesses rely on word-of-mouth reputation, so they're more likely to go above and beyond to satisfy customers. So, next time you're pondering a home project, keep it local.

CWC Celebrates Over 65 Years Serving the Lake County Community

CWC grant recipients submit requests that must be for projects that serve women and children in need in Lake County, such as court advocates for children and back-to-school shoe programs.

Caring Women's Connection (CWC) first started as a women's social organization in Hawthorn Woods in 1958. Over 65 years later, CWC is a vibrant and active philanthropic organization that still provides social connections but primarily focuses on serving women and children in need right in the Lake County community. As a 501(c)3, all-volunteer organization, they engage with supporters who believe in their mission through events (such as the April Spring Luncheon), charitable drives and volunteer opportunities. CWC also has strong ties to like-minded local businesses who join as Corporate Members.

The CWC Grants Program is the focus of their fundraising. The group fundraises throughout the year (August through July), and in May they give it all away. All of the CWC grant recipients are 501(c)3 organizations who submit requests for projects focused on women and children right in our county.

More information about CWC can be found at caringwomensconnection.com
